Scholarships & Paid Opportunities:

● Join us for the Undergraduate Scholarship & Fellowship Fair on Oct. 29, 10am-2pm in Mary Gates Hall! This event is an opportunity for UW undergraduates and alumni to learn about and explore the variety of scholarships, fellowships, and other funded programs to consider for undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate years. Program representatives from over 30 UW, local, national and international organizations, agencies, departments, etc. will be tabling, as well as offering information sessions throughout the day.

Information sessions offered during the Fair include (all held in MGH 171):

- Foreign Language & Area Studies Fellowship - 10:30am
- Summer Medical Dental Education Program (SMDEP) - 11:30am
- Marshall Scholarship Program - 12:30pm
- Phillip Yin & Friends American Dream Foundation – 1:30pm

Please see http://expd.washington.edu/scholarshipfair/forstudents for complete information session details and to RSVP for sessions.

● The Jackson Munro Public Service Fellowship encourages a lifelong commitment to public service by providing outstanding undergraduates with the opportunity to explore their potential through service and leadership in the community.

Jackson Munro Public Service Fellows are selected based on the strength of a public service project proposed in collaboration with a public sector (nonprofit or governmental) organization.

Factors influencing the selection of Munro Public Service Fellows include:

- Historical commitment to and involvement with community engagement activities
- Depth of partnership/relationship with proposed public sector partner
- Scope and impact of proposed work during the Fellowship
- Potentially sustainability of proposed project, how will the organization sustain this work at the end of your Fellowship?
- Connection between proposed project, academic studies, and professional/educational goals and objectives
The application deadline for the 2016 Fellowship is 11:59PM on Monday, November 9th.

Questions? Contact Rachel Vaughn, Director of the Carlson Leadership & Public Service Center at engage@uw.edu.

- We are hiring a Drop-in Biology Tutor for the remainder of the 2015-2016 school year. Are you passionate about Biology? Have you always wanted to help your fellow Huskies succeed? Do you want to gain experience teaching, tutoring, mentoring and supporting others in their learning? Then working with us at CLUE is the job for you.

CLUE is the UW's free, late-night, multidisciplinary study center located in Mary Gates Hall. We offer drop-in tutoring, discussion sessions led by graduate and senior undergraduate students, as well as a writing center. CLUE works to provide academic support to the full range of UW undergraduates. http://depts.washington.edu/aspuw/clue/home/

- The Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange for Young Professionals (CBYX), a fully-funded scholarship opportunity, is currently accepting applications from students.

The Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange for Young Professionals (CBYX) is a year-long fellowship that gives your students and recent graduates the opportunity to study and work in Germany. CBYX is open to students in all fields of study and at all levels of study, including graduating students who can participate after receiving their degrees. Students in the fields of agriculture, business, STEM, and vocational fields are especially encouraged to apply!

The program is funded by the US and German governments through a grant provided by the US Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, under the authority of the Fulbright-Hays Act of 1961, as amended. More information and the online application can be found at www.CBYX.info.

The CBYX program annually provides up to 75 participants with:

- 2 months intensive German language training
- 1 semester of study at a German university or university of applied sciences
- 5-month internship with a German company in the participant's career field
- Homestays with German host families, in shared apartments, and student dorms
- Transatlantic airfare, health insurance, and monthly living expense stipends
- Local in-country support throughout the program

Prior German language knowledge is not required, though it is preferred. Applicants should have clear career goals and some relevant work experience in their career field, which may include summer, part-time, or internship work. Participants must be between the ages of 18-24, possess a high school diploma or equivalent, and be US citizens or permanent residents.
Learning & Leadership Opportunities:

- The UW chapter of Golden Key International Honour Society is teaming up with The Princeton Review to host a variety of free practice tests and workshops throughout fall quarter to help students prepare for graduate school.

GK-TPR Fall Events Calendar:

- Sunday, Oct. 25th - free MCAT practice test. 1:00 PM in the Suzzallo Computer Instruction Lab.
- Thursday, Oct. 29th - free Graduate School Admissions Workshop. 5:30-7:00 PM in SMI 309.
  - RSVP at the following link (https://catalyst.uw.edu/webq/survey/goldkey/283641)
- Sunday, Nov. 8th - free GRE & GMAT practice test. 1:30 PM in the Suzzallo Computer Instruction Lab.
- Sunday, Nov. 15th - free LSAT practice test. 10:00 AM at The Princeton Review location on Roosevelt
- Sunday, Nov. 22nd - free GRE & GMAT practice test. 1:30 PM in the Suzzallo Computer Instruction Lab.
  - Note: each practice test also has a follow up review session within a week to discuss areas of improvement and strategies

Registration is open for the MCAT and LSAT practice tests. Registration for the other tests will open as we approach those dates. To register, go to The Princeton Review website (www.PrincetonReview.com), click on "Take a Test Near You," enter your zip code, and find the test you want to register for.

Questions? Please email Cassie Gawron (cassie.gawron@review.com) for more information.

- Applications are now open for the 2015-16 Husky Leadership Certificate cohort. Through the Husky Leadership Certificate (HLC), students identify, articulate, and demonstrate their leadership growth and accomplishments. Students create a leadership e-portfolio, and are matched with a mentor who helps the student reflect upon and give voice to their leadership development. Students must be a junior or senior to be considered.

Applications are due by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 3rd. Applicants will be notified by mid-November if they have been selected for the cohort, and will then be matched with a mentor. All HLC students are required to take a 1-credit winter quarter course (available in an in-person environment or online) to support their portfolio development process.

Please consider this unique opportunity for yourself and spread the word to other students who may be interested.

Apply now to be a part of the 2015-16 Husky Leadership Certificate cohort!

For more information about the Husky Leadership Certificate, please visit the Husky Leadership Initiative website.
Calling ALL Potential Volunteers and Tutors of UW!

UW Dream Project is a student-initiated program that aims to assist low-income and first-generation high school students in attaining higher education. We do this by going on weekly visits to support our mentees through the college application process and through our various events throughout the academic year. We would like to invite you to volunteer at our largest upcoming event Admissions Workshop Weekend (AWW) on November 14th and 15th, 2015.

Events:

Careers in the Tech Industry for All Majors:

Thursday, October 22nd, 2015
4:30-6:30pm; HUB # 214

Are you interested in working for a tech company but aren't a computer science student? Join us to learn about the hundreds of jobs in tech companies for non-tech majors! Hear from a panel of employers (DocuSign, Expedia, Google, Payscale) about what those jobs are and how to apply for them. Come for the panel and stay for time to mingle and talk with panelists after the event.

No need to pre-register. Please do arrive early as seats are limited. Questions? Email ccsevent@uw.edu or call 206-543-0535. We look forward to seeing at this fun event!

The SustainableUW Festival is coming up next week, Oct. 26-31!

The festival is designed to showcase the full scope of sustainability efforts across UW, including special festival programming as well as regularly-scheduled events. Some of the event highlights include:

- The Exhibitor Fair on Wednesday, October 28: UW programs, student groups, and community partners will be on Red Square to talk about how they put sustainability first.
- Husky Highlight: Energy and Innovation on Thursday, October 29: Researchers in the Molecular Engineering & Sciences Institute (MoIES) and the Clean Energy Institute (CEI) will talk about their passion for tackling some of society's greatest challenges and how they are incorporating sustainable practices in to their everyday work. RSVP required.
- Huskies for Humanity: "Research, art, and restoration: UW's connection to the Duwamish River" on Wednesday, October 28 at Alder Hall: An exploration of the many ways UW is connected to the Duwamish River.
- Sustainable Careers Meet and Greet, Thursday, October 29 at Odegaard ALC 136, 3:30 p.m.: Presentations on sustainability careers with representatives from the business, nonprofit, and government sectors, with by a meet and greet for students to talk with the speakers in a small group setting. The event will be followed by a poster session for student Campus Sustainability Fund and Green Seed Fund projects.
- Campus as Living Lab exhibit at the Bullitt Center, with a reception on Oct. 30 at 4-6 p.m.: UW Sustainability, in conjunction with the UW Center for Integrated Design, presents an exhibition showcasing innovative sustainability projects at the University of Washington.
You can find the full event calendar on our festival home page: http://green.uw.edu/festival

Festival Facebook Event Link: https://www.facebook.com/events/531609810337685/

Sustainability Careers Facebook event: https://www.facebook.com/events/1023247794386751/

Our Twitter account: @sustainableUW // Hashtag: #sustainableUW

Global Campus Photo Contest - Deadline: November 2nd, 2015.

The Office of Global Affairs and UW Study Abroad are excited to announce the first global photo contest open to the whole UW community—UW students, faculty, staff and alumni are all invited to participate!

Photos taken on study abroad programs, research or personal travel outside of the United States are eligible. The UW community will be invited to vote online among top submissions to pick the winning photos. Winners will be displayed as art at the Study Abroad Fair, and a special selection will be framed and displayed in the Office of Global Affairs in Gerberding Hall.

Submit your photos at our website by November 2! For more information visit www.washington.edu/studyabroad/students/when-you-return/photo-contest/.

The UW Study Abroad Fair is a great opportunity to learn more about study and international internship opportunities, attend information sessions, and connect with study abroad alumni!

Tuesday, November 10, 2015 • HUB Ballroom 10am – 2pm

Weekly Q Meetings

Mondays:

- Q Ink and Q Book Club (alternating weeks) 4-5:30pm in the Q Center
  - Q Ink is the Queer Writing group! Some weeks will be workshops, where you can bring in your own work to get helpful criticism (ranging from encouraging to critical, based on your preference). Some weeks will be guided prompts or writing styles, so that we can get practice experimenting with our words.
  - Q Book Club is the Queer Book Club! We will vote on books to read together and discuss. Other times, we'll bring in books that we appreciate and want to share. This is a great way to meet other bookworms and get to know the Q Center library and beyond.

- Bearing Witness meets from 6:30-8:30pm at the Langston Hughes Performing Art Center in CD is a free performing arts program for queer students of color and allies (up through 22 years old) that meets weekly with performing arts professionals. No experience needed. Snacks provided.

Tuesdays:

- Gender Discussion Group meets in the Q Center from 4-6pm every week, where you can meet with others who wish to explore the continuum of gender identity and expression through discussion, support of one another, and connection. This support group is facilitated by two master of social work students interning at the Q Center.
● QTPOC Office Hours meet in the ECC main space from 4-6pm every week, where sometimes you just wanna hang out with rad chill QTPOCs without it being FOR something. Well come to the ECC and we'll be chilling on the couches every week. Vent about the intersections of isms we live with as QTPOC.

Thursdays:

● Advo-QTs meets in the Q Center from 5:30-7pm every week, where we work together to forward propel projects, social events, and educational events as activists in our own lives and communities. We also strive to be a learning space for open and guided discussions. All are welcome.

Fridays:

● QPOCA meets in the ECC Asian Room from 4-6pm every week, and anyone who identifies as QTPOC is encouraged to attend. We have rad discussions about what it means to live at this intersection, we go on field trips to the ID and CD and beyond, and we promote our own agenda of QTPOC awesomeness.

● How to Love THIS Queer Body of Color: An Unapology, Gay City Health Project, Oct. 22nd-25th and Oct. 29th-Nov. 1st at 7pm. This spoken word series of performances, poets will tell the story of their body as a Queer of Color, dissecting not only their bodies in relationship to love, but self-love and the relationship to the color of their skin. This series will go in the cycle of a relationship (i.e. attraction, dating, open relationships, monogamy/marriage, therapy, arguments, breaking up/divorce) but in reverse. Facebook Event. Tickets required.

● QuHAC Community Forum, Southeast Seattle Senior Center, Tuesday, October 27th, 6-8pm. They're inviting LGBTQ community members, health care providers, and representatives from local organizations who serve LGBTQ communities in the Seattle area and will be asking YOU to share YOUR experience and expertise to make sure QuHAC can best serve YOU. Facebook Event. If you can't make this one (it does conflict with our meeting), you can bus with Nat to the Ingersoll Gender Center, for the final Community Forum on Tuesday, November 11th.

● Queer Sex Ed, Location TBA, Wednesday, November 4th, from 5-7pm. Come volunteer, ask questions, and learn things from our very own Queer Sex Ed Panel in partnership with the ASUW Queer Student Commission. We couldn't do it without you! Facebook Event to be announced.

● Queeraoke, University Branch of Seattle Public Library, Friday, November 6th, 4-7pm. Speak up and sing out loud. Share original songs, poems, and stories and sing karaoke with ggnzla KARAOKE!

● Queer & Trans Clothing Exchange, Pipsqueak Gallery in the CD, Saturday, November 14th from 12-6pm, and Sunday, November 15th from 2-7pm. The Seattle Queer and Trans Clothing Exchange is a biannual event open to all members of the LGBTQ community. We aim to provide a safe, welcoming environment to get gently used clothing at no cost. They are currently collecting clothing donations from multiple locations, including the Q Center! Facebook Event.