Applications for the 2016 Washington State Legislative Internship are open now on their website! The internship is open to ALL majors.

http://leg.wa.gov/Internships/Pages/InternshipApplication.aspx

They will accept applications between now and October 16th. The 2016 internship will run from January 6, 2016, through March 10, 2016. The Washington State Legislative Internship Program’s Priority deadline of October 6th has passed, but if you are interested, you can still apply by the final deadline of October 16th, 2015.

Additional information about the internship, about the application and other frequently asked questions can be found on their website:

http://leg.wa.gov/Internships/Pages/default.aspx
http://leg.wa.gov/Internships/Pages/Application-Writing-Tips-and-Sample.aspx
http://leg.wa.gov/Internships/Pages/faq.aspx

Feel free to contact the internship coordinators in Olympia (Paula Rehwaldt and Emily McCartan) at: civic.ed@leg.wa.gov.

If you have questions about the internship, applications, or how the credits will count at the University of Washington, feel free to contact Mark Weitzenkamp, PhD Academic Counselor at weitzen@uw.edu or set up an appointment through the Political Science Advising Appointment Calendar (http://depts.washington.edu/polsadvc/signup.php). He would be glad to talk through the application process with any interested student from any department. Don't let this amazing opportunity slip by before you graduate.

The Center for Experiential Learning and Diversity is excited to share great news about financial support for students participating in International Exchange opportunities. This year we will be able to offer the following additional support for students:

- Increased funds for GO! scholarships, beginning Autumn 2015
- A brand new scholarship, Plan2GO! coming Spring 2016

You'll find more information at our website, goglobal.uw.edu. Please also feel free to contact us with questions and to refer students to Global Opportunities workshops & advising.

Mary Gates Hall 171
RSVP

The CLS Program is a program of the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. It is a fully-funded overseas language program for American undergraduate and graduate students. With the goal of broadening the base of Americans studying and mastering critical languages and to build relationships between the people of the United States and other countries, CLS provides study opportunities to a diverse range of students from across the United States at every level of language learning.

The fourteen CLS languages are: Arabic, Azerbaijani, Bangla, Chinese, Hindi, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Persian, Punjabi, Russian, Swahili, Turkish, and Urdu.

● The Jackson Munro Public Service Fellowship (formerly the Sterling and Gene Munro Public Service Fellowship) encourages a lifelong commitment to public service by providing outstanding undergraduates with the opportunity to explore their potential through service and leadership in the community. Jackson Munro Public Service Fellows are selected based on the strength of a public service project proposed in collaboration with a public sector (nonprofit or governmental) organization.

Factors influencing the selection of Munro Public Service Fellows include:

- Historical commitment to and involvement with community engagement activities
- Depth of partnership/relationship with proposed public sector partner
- Scope and impact of proposed work during the Fellowship
- Potentially sustainability of proposed project, how will the organization sustain this work at the end of your Fellowship?
- Connection between proposed project, academic studies, and professional/educational goals and objectives

Questions? Contact Rachel Vaughn, Director, Carlson Leadership & Public Service Center at engage@uw.edu.

● Phil and Friends American Dream Foundation Scholarship Fund
UW Information Session:
Wednesday, October 14, 2015
1:30 – 2:30 pm, 171 Mary Gates Hall, Multipurpose Room
RSVP to attend

Brief Program Information:

Eligible students must be current undergraduates at the UW in their first year of study – a freshman or transfer student. They should be able to demonstrate their passion and purpose, civic engagement and leadership, and possess strong communication skills. Lastly, they should be able to provide a compelling story told in both an essay and video describing why the American dream is important to them.

Ten selected students will receive $1,000. This scholarship is not renewable.

- Sophomore Lab Helper

  A virology lab in the Microbiology department at the UW is looking for a sophomore lab helper. The initial duties will include basic lab maintenance, solution making and other lab tasks. However, the position can transition into learning cutting edge bench research in future quarters. The lab is looking for a dynamic student, preferably a sophomore or possibly a freshman, intensely interested in science and willing to work at least 8 hours a week throughout the year. Please send a resume, your unofficial transcripts and a one paragraph statement on why you are interested in working in a lab to Lagunoff@uw.edu

- Undergraduate Research Program Info Sessions & Advising

  STEP 1: Undergraduate Research Info Sessions

  If you’re looking to get started in research, this is the info session for you!

  Undergraduate research information sessions address how the Undergraduate Research Program can help students pursue their research interests. The sessions provide research resources, information on funding, and suggestions for approaching faculty. Additionally, the sessions are highly student-driven, with an emphasis on student questions and concerns.
Every Friday in Autumn Quarter, 2:30 - 3:20 p.m., 171 Mary Gates Hall

Sign up here: https://expo.uw.edu/expo/rsyp/event/160

STEP 2: Autumn Quarter Drop-In Advising*

One-on-one or small group advising for students who have attended a URP Info Session or are already involved in research.

Tuesdays 10:00 a.m - 12:00 p.m. &
Thursdays 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

No appointment necessary to meet with an adviser. Just check in at the front desk in Mary Gates Hall 171 when you arrive during drop-in hours.

If these times do not work for you, please email us at urp@uw.edu with several dates and times you're available for the following week, and we will work on setting you up with an appointment.

● U Lead We Lead: Leadership for Social Change

October 15, 6 - 8 p.m. at the HUB Ballroom Register today!

Think you'll be hungry? Don't worry; dinner will be provided.

U Lead We Lead is a cross-campus collaboration of faculty, staff and students that uses the art of storytelling to motivate leaders of today and tomorrow. As a community, we dive into timely and relevant questions about leadership. No lectures about leadership here; this event is all about stories, experiences, and learning from one another.

As the Husky Leadership Initiative kick-off event for the year, U Lead We Lead: Leadership for Social Change helps inspire you for what's ahead. Stay inspired through Husky Leadership Initiative programs throughout the year. Learn what's going on through our Facebook page and our website.

● The UW International and English Language Programs (UW IELP) is a program which provides English language instruction to international students from a variety of nations/across the globe! We work hard to connect our students with the UW community and others in the greater Seattle area.

We offer 3 great volunteer opportunities to develop global citizenship, improve language skills, and connect people!

If you are interested in this opportunity, please sign up online at http://www.ielp.uw.edu/student-life/activities/language-exchange/applications/form-ambassador.asp and contact langex@pce.uw.edu for questions.

● UW Study Abroad is holding an information session on the IES study abroad program in Beijing, China. Please see the attached flyer and encourage your students to stop by to learn more. The information session is next Monday, October 12 from 12:30-1:30 in 459 Schmitz Hall.

IES is one of UW's approved affiliated program providers, offering summer, fall and spring programs in Beijing, China. http://www.iesabroad.org/study-abroad/beijing
