Interactive Parent Programs
UW – The Robinson Center

Winter Quarter – 2015

ALL PARENTS WELCOME:
Tuesday 1/20 - 6:30 – 8:00 pm – “The Age of Opportunity Part One”
This quarter’s parent programs will be based on Age of Opportunity: Lessons from the New Science of Adolescence by Dr. Laurence Steinberg. We will focus on the first five chapters, with an emphasis on brain and behavior development. We will discuss strategies and answer questions on how to best support our young scholars.

Tuesday 2/10 - 6:30 – 8:00 pm – “The Age of Opportunity Part Two”
We will continue our discussion of Age of Opportunity, focusing on chapters six through ten, discussing how to support your adolescents as they develop higher-level skills, such as self-regulation and non-cognitive skills.

Saturday 2/21 at 1:00 – 4:00 pm – “Alumni Study Reveal”
Join RC staff, students, and alumni as the research team reveals various findings on the alumni experiences and long-term impacts of the program. Chocolate fountain reception to follow. Location: UW Club.

TS PARENTS ONLY:
Tuesday 1/20 at 5:00 pm – “Financial-Aid Information Workshop”
Led by our Academic Counselor, TS parents will be introduced to the processes involved in applying for financial-aid at the UW.

FIRST YEAR EEP AND ACAD PARENTS ONLY:
Thursday 2/12 at 6:30 pm – “Freshman Parent Check-In”
Topics discussed will include spring registration and parent expectations for the second half of freshman year. Additionally, parents will have the opportunity to chat with Robinson Center support staff as well as fellow parents.
