

Equity and Identification Forum: Participants Share Highly Capable Program Policies

Nancy B. Hertzog, Ph.D.

Sponsored by the Robinson Center for Young Scholars

WHEN

July 25, 2018 | 9:00AM - 3:00PM

WHERE

UW Odegaard Undergraduate Library, Room 220

WHAT

The State of Washington is a national leader in equity initiatives in gifted education by prioritizing the identification of children from low-income homes. This forum is an opportunity for administrators, coordinators, and teachers of highly capable programs to share what they are doing to address equity issues in their identification and array of highly capable services. Participants will hear each other's presentations, discuss, and share ideas for how they can apply what they learn in the presentations to their own district's policies.

Most importantly, equity practices related to highly capable programs will impact all students in a district. Both intended and unintended outcomes of equity initiatives will be discussed and addressed in a case study format.
