

Parent Programs

UW – The Robinson Center

Spring Quarter – 2020

ALL PARENTS WELCOME:

Wednesday 4/15 – 5:30-7 pm – How are we coping with online learning?

We hope this will be a space for you to find community, think and talk about what you and your students are experiencing, and use RC staff as resources to learn and grow. We will spend some time checking in about how you and your students are coping with this new experience of online learning and share resources and strategies for support.

Thursday 5/14 – 5:30-7 pm – Reflecting on another Year

As your student completes the year they may be feeling a variety of things: exhaustion, elation, panic, excitement. As parents, you may be feeling any or all of these things, too! We will spend our last parent program reflecting on the year and thinking forward to next year. You will also have a chance to share your thoughts and experiences with RC Parent programming to help us refine our work with you.
